Title: How to Dance with Uncertainty: Master the Rhythm

Uncertainty is great! You should embrace it! And it doesn't exist!

With over three decades of experience as a working creative professional, Michael helps businesses understand how to create adaptable leaders in times of rapid change. He is a certified professional practitioner of the Adaptability Quotient (AQ) assessment and a two-time TEDx speaker on creativity-related topics. He is also a highly qualified coach in six disciplines, including as a certified Master of Creativity and Innovation Coaching and Recovery Coach.

In this talk, Michael unpacks how our greatest fear – uncertainty – can be a powerful tool for success. Just as a skilled dancer navigates intricate moves with grace and confidence, we delve into the art of embracing uncertainty with a curated set of ten transformative steps.

We are in an age of uncertainty like never before, and it's only becoming worse. This empowering and fun interactive keynote will teach you to embrace that uncertainty, find new rhythms, lead with agility, and make bold decisions amid ambiguity. In short, you will transform your relationship to uncertainty, making it your partner to create breakthrough results.

And yes, you will dance!

In this talk, you will learn how to:

- Overcome your fear of uncertainty.
- Help others who you are leading overcome their fear.
- Identify patterns within uncertainty that can help you find certainty in the most difficult situations, bringing calm and even predictability.
- Use improvisation to tame uncertainty.
- Master the dance of adapting to uncertainty so you can use its energy to make it your ally in growth.
